How to Schedule an Education Abroad Advising Appointment

1. Have you met with a Peer Advisor? If so, skip to step 2! Otherwise, stop by the Education Abroad Advising Center to meet with a Peer Advisor.

   Education Abroad Advising Center Drop-In hours
   10am - 4pm, Monday - Friday. No appointment needed!
   International Programs Office, 70 Butterfield Terrace
   (next to Gorman, behind the construction for the new Newman Center)

   Some Zoom appointments are available by following these instructions.

2. Click the name of your EA Advisor below to make an appointment with them.*
   Find out who your Education Abroad Advisor is by clicking here.

   - AJ LeBlanc
   - Ashley Krause
   - Claire Novotny (Amelia Novotny in Navigate)
   - Cris Sosa
   - Emily Ostenson

   A. Choose Virtual or In-Person. Depending on the Advisor/Time, you may only have one option.

   *If nothing fits your schedule, send an email to your EA Advisor.

   B. In “Would you like to share anything else?” include your major, class year, and your ideas/plans for your education abroad, and any questions. Let us know what you’d like to talk about! We want to be prepared for your questions so the appointment will be a good use of your time.

   Questions about finances, payment, scholarships, and other money topics? Please schedule an appointment with Kate Smith.
